METROPOLITAN NOTES

C. A. Swayney, representative of the Remington Typewriter company, was a visitor at the college last week.

Miss Pauline Pace, a student in the stenographic department, was married to Mr. Ernest Jameson, of this city. Congratulations!

Miss Bernice Bow, principal of the Metropolitan Commercial college at Lawton, spent the Christmas holidays at her home in this city.

Improvements effected during the week, with a view to perfecting the college's new quarters, include the erection of a large sign with gilt lettering across the front of the building, and gilt lettering on the doors of the office, reception room, and the classrooms.

President H. P. Henry spent Christmas in El Reno, where another of his chain of Metropolitan Commercial colleges is located, and where he has also other property interests.

H. R. Lynch, field representative of the Ardmore college, held a double celebration on Christmas day, when he entertained a number of friends at his home southwest of this city, December 25 being also his birthday.

Following the Christmas recess, classes will be resumed at the Metropolitan Commercial college Monday morning with a largely increased enrollment. It is hoped that all new students will be present, without fail, promptly at 8 a. m.

Among the most recent enrollments registered during the holidays, are in the commercial department—Messrs. Bishop, Will Bennings, Chas. Haynes, Herbert Benson and J. C. Franks. In the stenographic department—Mrs. Paris, Miss Ella Williams and Jim Haynes.

Additional evidence has just been received of the thoroughness of the instruction given in the typewriting department, two students, Miss Katherine Warfield and Miss Lorena Wall, having been awarded prizes for speed and accuracy in typewriting by the Remington Typewriter company, as a result of a practical examination held last month. These monthly tests are conducted strictly in accordance with the rules of the international speed contests, and are designed to minimize incompetence to such a degree that employers engaging Metropolitan graduates, will be sure of being served by skilled and accurate typists.

In connection with the course in business efficiency, which is a part of the curriculum of every student in both the commercial and the stenographic department, it is planned to have, from time to time, prominent gentlemen address the students on various topics. The first of these talks will be given next Wednesday afternoon, January 5, at one o'clock, when the mayor of Ardmore, Hon. Val Mullen, has very kindly consented to deliver an address on the subject: "Some Problems of City Government." It may well be surmised that among the present student body, there may be a future mayor of Ardmore or city commissioner. At any rate, it is realized that in order to be good citizens, it is desirable to have an intelligent idea of the government of our city. The mayor's visit is being eagerly anticipated, and anyone interested is cordially invited to be present, and will be heartily welcomed.

trades and professions, are our co-workers, as they join in the lines or some of them, which are so necessary to carry on our structures of county and city building, and that each and every one is essential to the final good of each and every one. When we get the proper view and correct idea of all these constructive factors, we must then consider absolute fairness to each and every one, and grant those privileges that by all the rights of justice and citizenship they are entitled to.

The day laborer who makes his home in our city, plying his daily vocation, is a citizen and city builder, in the true sense of the term, and is entitled to the very kindest and fairest consideration. The merchant or tradesman who locates in our city and secures a home for his family and puts his money into the regular channels of commerce and trade, is entitled to the best of consideration, and he is a constructive builder for the general good of our city and every citizen in it, and its general interest. The capitalist who comes to our city and puts his money into a plant—say in mining or milling, or public utility—is a citizen in the true sense, and they, like everyone else, are valued and constructive assets, and should have the fairest consideration by the entire body politic.

We should use our best endeavors to understand in a general way the business that every one follows along the different lines as nearly as possible, that we may be able to deal absolutely fair with each and every one, giving first, due consideration to their several and individual interests, and then we will be in a position to weigh correctly their interest and dealing with the general interest of all, looking forward to the great and desired success of our city and general community as well.

As we view your city at this time, you are laying the groundwork for a city in deed and in truth, and the thing to do is to carefully consider every move made, looking to the interest of every individual, and as a lasting, permanent and dependable asset in the coming Greater Ardmore. Your future is bright, and mistakes, by careful thought out plans, can be avoided, thus leaving the way paved for no readjusting in the future.

DODGE BROTHERS SHOW MARVELOUS FIRST YEAR

Dodge Brothers, Detroit, have just completed their first year as manufacturers of motor cars and the record established is unique even in this amazing industry.

The first completed car rolled out of the plant in December, 1914, and actual shipments started in January, 1915. With the close of the first year, Dodge Brothers merely state that the public has "bought more than $25,000,000 worth" of their cars. Nothing is said of production plans for next year, but the announcement is made that the demand, which has always been ahead of production, remains unsatisfied.

The record made in the first year is the talk of motor car circles. Before beginning the manufacture of a car bearing their own name, Dodge Brothers were well known in the trade as large makers of automobile parts. But no one anticipated when it was announced that they would bring out a car that within a year they would jump among the first six companies in the country in the production of cars. But such is the fact and the career of Dodge Brothers is sure to be carefully watched by both the trade and public during 1916.

PASSING OF ONE OF WORLD'S GREATEST TRAGEDIANS

Florence, Italy, Jan. 1.—Tommaso Salvini, one of the world's greatest tragedians in Shakespearean plays, died here last night.

Tommaso Salvini was one of the world's greatest tragedians. It was he who introduced and established Shakespeare's plays in Italian drama. American theatregoers of the past generation remember his vivid portrayal of "Othello." In this character he was unsurpassed. He lived the part of the jealous Moor, holding audiences spellbound in the splendidly tragic climax.

The great Edwin Booth played "Iago" during one of Salvini's American tours. It is said he was actually afraid of the raging tragedian. He always cautioned those who were to restrain "Othello" in his mad rush at "Iago."

"Hold him fast!" anxiously urged Booth. "He'll kill me; I know it."

Salvini toured the United States seven times. "If I were not an Italian," said the celebrated artist in recalling his American triumphs, "I should wish to be an American. There I was welcomed like a child of Washington. I remember when I was playing in Washington I went to visit the capitol. Someone said in French: 'Mr. Salvini, would you like to see the congress room?' As soon as I entered the meeting stopped and all rose to their feet. I was so surprised and moved that for a few minutes I could not utter a word."

The fame of the Italian tragedian was world-wide. On one of his last tours of Europe, he played in St. Petersburg. After the play, the public waited outside the theatre for him until 2 o'clock in the morning, with the temperature at 29 degrees below zero. The crowds then escorted him through the street like a conquering hero to the palace of Prince Vladimir, where he was a guest.

Salvini was reared for the stage. Born in Milan in 1829, he was acting as a child with his father. When he was 15, his father died and the young son continued to play small parts in the company of the celebrated Gustavo Modena.

"The school in which I was coached was a rigorous one," said the tragedian recently in recalling his early days. "While with my father I did not receive any salary. After a year, and my father was dead, my salary was 20c a day. A one-cent piece of watermelon was my breakfast in those days."

Salvini deserted the stage temporarily at the age of 29, to fight for Italian independence in the revolution under Garibaldi. He served as a corporal at the siege of Rome. When the war was over he returned to his art, joining the famous Adelaide Ristori's company.

"She engaged me as a juvenile at a very good salary," said Salvini. "Then I began to advance rapidly."

At the age of 27 he was celebrated throughout Europe. He made his first visit to the United States in 1873.

On the 50th anniversary of Salvini's birth, the Italian people held a national jubilee. The government struck off and presented to him a commemorative medal. The city of Rome honored him with its key. Admirers in America who remembered his acting in association with Booth, Boucicault, and Clara Morris, sent testimonials of their affection for the venerable artist.

Salvini retired from active stage life in 1903. His son, Gustavo, then was the only representative of his branch of the family on the stage. Another son, Alessandro, an actor of promise, had died several years before.

"I no longer enjoy acting," said the distinguished idol of two conti-

DRINK HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST

Says you really feel clean, sweet and fresh inside, and are seldom ill.

If you are accustomed to waking with a coated tongue, foul breath, a dull, dizzy headache; or, if your meals sour and turn into gas and acids, you have a real surprise awaiting you.

Tomorrow morning, immediately upon arising, drink a glass of water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is intended first to neutralize and then wash out your stomach, liver, kidneys and thirty feet of intestines all the indigestible waste, poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal.

Those subject to sick headache, backache, bilious attacks, constipation or any form of stomach trouble are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store and begin enjoying this morning inside bath. It is said that men and women who try this become enthusiastic and keep it up daily. It is a splendid health measure for it is more important to keep clean and pure of the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing disease, while the bowel pores do.

The principle of bathing inside is not new, as millions of people practice it. Just as hot water and soap cleanse, purify and freshen the skin, so hot water and a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Limestone phosphate is an inexpensive white powder and almost tasteless.

"I worked very hard for years making many sacrifices. Every human being, I think I may say, loves to be applauded. When one receives salutes of applause, and young enthusiasts leap upon the stage to embrace one, as they did me at Naples, who would not be gratified? But the acting itself no longer gives me pleasure. I am weary."

The death of Salvini will be observed with appropriate ceremony by actors in all parts of Europe and America.

"77" HUMPHREYS' SEVENTY-SEVEN FOR GRIP, INFLUENZA, COLDS

The ease of administering and carrying Homeopathic medicines will be a revelation to those who are accustomed to the old school—no big bottles and spoon, just a small vial of pleasant pellets that fits the vest pocket.

To get the best results, take "Seventy-seven" at the first feeling of a cold, a chill, a shiver, lassitude. If you wait until you begin to cough and sneeze, have sore throat and influenza, it may take longer.
